THE SUBTREASURY SYSTEM. In compliance with a Resolution of the House of Representatives in Congress, adopted in Ocmber last requiring intermation of default on the part of receivers, sollectors and depositories of the public money from the 1st of January 1834 to the present time together with all information in connection with the subject, the 3.2setary of the Treasury has made his report to the House: The report is of great length, and will not be printed for some days . We gather the following facts from the Madisonian.

The Report states that some of the Banks employed by the Government as depositories, have and of those who have not unid, it is further etated that it is expected that all but TWELVE will pay without suit. Of these twelve banks two are in Mississippi two in Detroit two in Ohio one in Kentucky one in Buffalo one in Mobile, and two in Tennesseer The only Bank as yet sued by the Government, is the tranklin Bank, Boston which is indebted to the ansont of $17,409,60. The report furnishes also a list of the names ...of the defaulting Collectors and Receivers, together with their sureties, who were out of office, October 12th, 1637. From this list the Madisonian publishes the sums which fall due from defaulters in the years 1836 and 1837 only.

There is one of $8.877 25, one of $13,850 15, time of $483 99, one of $9071 51, one of $205 61, one of $30 55, one of $14,753 34 There is reported as owing "on account of official emplumenta" one sum of $3,497 92, one of $2.101 97 and one of $5,805 72. These sums appear as defaloations on the part of the Collectors of the Customs for the two last years.

'The Inco-foco ism of Charles J. Ingersoll, the District Attorney of Philadelphia, is satisfactorily accounted for by the Report. His bitter opposition to the United States Bank, and his zealous advocacy of Mr. Van Buren's Sub-Treasury System are shewn, pretty conclusively, to rest upon that ground " which makes all doctrines plain and clear." His name, the name of CHARLES J. Isunsone, District Attorney of Philadelphia 27th of January, 1837, in the sum of $76,491 00!!

From a list of Receivers contained in the reort, who were out of omce on the 12th of October last, whose names and suseties, and the balances standing against them arising from sales | agent of Public lands paid over to them, are given, ne take the following amounts, which fell due, by such officers, in the years 1836 and 1837.

The following are reported as in suit. One aden for $1,338 92, one for $2,146 27, one fur $548 61,one for $109,178 08,one for $23.168 18, and one for $54,626 55. "Reported for suit" we account of Indian school fund, (a special deposits we suppose) the sum of $508 53.

We are opposed, as a general thing to making crations to this role. There is one class of the continued a committee to inquire what amount claim to forbearance. There is no forbearance is not to forbearance. There is no forbearance is not to forbearance. the affaits of partic men, the subclaim to forhearance. These who use the scalping knife caunot equaplain of their opponents man, to morrow (Seturday) Evening, the be for adopting the rules of savage warfare. Those supported on Monday next for Mayor of this who instigated and followed up the ruthless attack upon the Bank of the United States, and of E. S. Greely, came up, and were laid on the taking advantage of the access which the Government possessed to the books of that institution, ferreted out the private transactions of political opponents, and published their indebtedness, to the world, must not complain, if the 'mecone they meled, shall be intunured to them again." Of all this tribe, Isaac Hill was the most malignant in his feeling, the most unprincipled in his mode of warfare. He was too the prime mover of that piece of incounty. The first sin of the Bank was its refusal to remove the President of the Portsmouth Branch, to gratify the political and personal animosity of Hill and Woodbury. He was too an aider and abettor in the unconstitutional removal of the deposites. He wanted the public funds, where he sould use them. He effected his object, and perlments gunnery is now reasons his reward. He is sharing in the Messrs. Steward, Emery, and Jagues were is now reaging his reward. He is sharing in the sommon fate, which the measures he advocated have brought upon the country; The failure of paid over the full amount placed in their hands, the Commonwealth Bank has exposed the situation of his private affairs, and he cannot justly complain if his opponents make use of the facts thus developed.

We extract the following articles from the Boston Atlas and Dover Enquiter, to show the way in which the Whize are attacking the Governor with his own neapons.

PATENT DEMOCRACY ISAAC HILL.

In-relation to the subject of Gov. Hill's indebtedness to the Commonwealth Bank, the Concord Patriot says, that even Mr. Webster had a draft for $10,000 protested at that bank, and that this sum is nearly three times as much as Gov. Hill owed the Bank when it lailed."... The same paper remerks: "We think the Bank will get its pay of Gov. Hill as soon at least as it does of Mr. Webster."

With regard to the charge respecting Mr. Webster, that gentleman has himself promptly repelled it from his seat in the Senate Chamber Governor Hill's liabilities to the Commonwealth Bank, amount to $10,000, four thousand of which is due on his own accommodation paper, and six thousand he is re: ponsible for as endurser for his partner, Cyrus Barton. "The Bank will get its pay of Gov .- Hill" but how will it get its may firm the bills of solvent, responsible institutions? By no means. Gov. Hill is the gainer some thirty per cent on his limbilities, by the failure. We charge it upon him directly that his broker here was last week employed by him in buying up bills of the Commonwealth Bank, at the rate of seventy cents for the dollar and that $8 500 were thus bought up for the purpose of discharging his liabilities to the bank AT THIRTY PER LENT less than he would have been responsible for, had not the bills been appears, as a defaulter to the Government on the depreciated And who are the losers of this thirty per cent? Why, the Poor Pensioners the FISHERMEN, for whom specie and Treasury notes were considered not been by the government. It is not Mr Isaas Hill, the pension but the pensioners themselves, who are the sufferers. The former is directly the gainer to the amount of thirty-per cent, on his duca to the bank, and the latter are as diregily the tosers. to that amount on the hitle they may hold.

Mr. Entrop, Is it a fact, as it is currently reported. That, uge ats are salaroad in the state, etfind the following. One sum for $6,624 83, one ther from Gov. Holl or some other of the great ded, and Huther, who are now stockholders and for $30,611 97, and one for $11,708 73; and on debtors to the Common wealth Bank, buying up directors of said Bank, and what amount of its the bills of that Bank at a large discount, for bills have been put in circulation. Adj these near terms their debts at the bank with at their full value? - If such is the fact, what dered to be deposited in banks. One sum due measure of scorn and detestation is due the FIRE IN NEW YORK: A destructive conflagration occurred in New York on Monday last. Twenty houses of Fifth and Sixth streets and the D. Avenue were consumed. The loss was very great, and has fallen mostly upon persons in good circumstances. The wind was very high, and the fire spread with such rapidity that the occupants of many of the houses had only time to preserve their lives, saving nothing except what they had upon their persons.

WHO IS GENERAL SUTHERLAND?

The Buffalo Advertiser gives the following flattering account of General Bombastes Sutherland, who has recently figured in the transactions upon the Canada frontier :

This wilf-styled General Sutherland is a misrable vagabond. When we first heard of him. he edited the Black Dwarf, an infamons little paper at Utica. A year or two since he made his appearance in the town of Lancaster, in this county, as a practising lawyer, and some time after was indicted for an assault and battery, on a poor Dutch girl, was tried twice, and each time convicted of the assault, and then turned patriot, thus affording another proof of the truth of Dr Johnson's sarcastic definition.

The public are respectfully referred to the notice of the Pastern. Bank, putioning their against taking drafts purporting to be drawn by the N. Y. Foreign and Domestic Exchange Co.
